Submitted by my Moto G 2014 using the XDA-Developers mobile app Here is a workaround to prevent the app from updating: 1. Download this: play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=kellinwood.zipsigner2 2. Back up /system/priv-app/MotCamera/MotCamera.apk (with some sort of root-explorer) 3. Zipsign /system/priv-app/MotCamera/MotCamera.apk 4. replace the original MotCamera.apk with the signed one 5 set the right permissions (644) 6. restart Now the camera is no longer updated from the play store. If you can't download the Motorola Gallery from the play store or install fom apk just do this, download any gallery like QuickPic open and grant permissions, then you can't download the motorola gallery from the play store when it's installed open Link2SD and make the Motorola gallery a system app, restart your phone and you see it works normal (Now you can't move photos to SDCard etc.) Finally quickpic uninstall if you want :good: Camera app link Not working, please help. I installed the camera APK, it works, so Google says there is an update on Play, I update the app and the new camera app freezes. I removed the APK and reinstalled the stock version, but now I noticed that using the old camera, it doesn't focus automatically. I cleared the cache/application data, no changes. I'm using stock 6.0 (rooted). What can I do? Hey, I'm using the official AEX ROM based on 7.1.1 on my Moto g turbo. I was crossing the playstore and he recommended Moto Camera. I didn't know it would be compatible. So I installed it but couldn't get past the home screen because I couldn't touch the buttons. Then I realized that I had changed the size of my display in small from normal from the display settings. Putting it to normal worked but makes the rest of the user interface great.
